ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE AUDITORIUM.

Extra Large Programme For Wednesday and Thursday—Theda Bara in Seven Reel Production of "The Darling of Paris," and Three Reels of Sixth Episode of "Patricia," With Mrs. Vernon Castle.

Wednesday and Thursday are to be big days at this theatre with a ten reel programme arranged. The big feature is a seven reel and is William Fox's de luxe production of "The Darling of Paris," with the most brilliant of screen stars, Theda Bara. The photoplay is suggested by Victor Hugo's tragic romance, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." In it Miss Bara is seen impersonating the beautiful gypsy girl, Esmeralda, the most delightful character in French literature. She has never essayed a part nearly so attractive as in this supreme photoplay. This picture in itself is well worth making extra effort to be present one of these two days.

Wednesday and Thursday will also see the sixth episode of "Patricia," with Mrs. Vernon Castle. In this episode Mrs. Castle is seen to take a double role in order to escape her enemies. This part is a three reel and is full of thrilling incidents.

Today, "The Bitter Truth" will be shown as the six reel feature with Virginia Pearson taking the leading role. The third episode of "The Secret Kingdom," and as an added attraction Armory Star Stockiest Ham film, "From Farm to Table," will be exhibited. All of the performances Monday saw large numbers to witness this excellent programme and everyone went home more than satisfied.

BREED THEATRE.

Ethel Barrymore in "The White Raven," Five Part Metro Wonderplay Feature For Wednesday and Thursday.

With a supporting cast worthy of her pre-eminence, Ethel Barrymore appears at the Breed theatre tomorrow and Thursday in "The White Ravens," a Metro Wonderplay that presents Miss Barrymore in a startling and unusual role. For the first time in her career

To Relieve Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmitin (Double Strength), about 75 cents worth. Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmitin is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to combat any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this recipe a trial. Lee & Osgood can supply you.

der existing laws; absence of compulsory strike settlement laws; increased taxation and the general effect of these conditions on the investing public.

"It seems inconceivable that a nation as dependent as ours upon railroad transportation should permit a strike to occur," Mr. Lovett continued. "It seems to me that one of the plainest duties of the national government, not merely to the railroads, but to the whole people, is to provide means for settling disputes between the railroads and the taxpayers likely to lead to such strikes. Men cannot be compelled to work against their will and no one suggests it, but men can be forbidden to enter into and carry out a conspiracy to interfere with and suspend commerce."

The hearing adjourned before Mr. Lovett had completed his testimony.

SWEDISH SOCIALISTS SEND GREETINGS TO PARTY IN RUSSIA
On the Quick and Complete Success of the Political Revolution.

Stockholm, March 19, via London, 2:30 p. m.—Swedish socialists have telegraphed the greetings of their party to the socialists of Russia and also have sent their congratulations on the "quick and complete success of the political revolution." They also wish to gain for the Russian people and all humanity.

FAMILY DOCTOR'S GOOD ADVICE
To Go On Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Because They Did Her Good

ROCHESTER, Jan. 14th, 1915.
"I suffered for many years with terrible indigestion and constipation. I had frequent dizzy spells and became greatly run down. A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve, and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-tives'."

I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I want to say to those who suffer from indigestion, constipation or headaches—'try Fruit-a-tives' and you will get well!" CORINE GAUDREAU.

POETRY
THE PRIVATE.
They called his title private—
He reached no higher grade,
But when he died he was called
No chisel carved his name,
No monument rise o'er him,
No multitude acclaim.

For he was but a private,
And served under the same
And, dying, gave his nation
A never-dying name.
He gave to order's program
The life's time he gave
And in his country's annals,
Though namesless, he shall live.

He fought and fell a private—
Without promotion he
To carry out his banner
Beyond the utmost sea.
That purpose might not falter,
And justice with honor
For man's eternal gain.

He served as but a private,
And never held the word;
Nor did not come high him,
His hand holds no reward.
The hope of righteous laws;
Nor vengeance marked his valor,
Nor malice on his sword.

They called his title private—
He sleeps in glory's bed,
And where he fell, advancing,
And other words he said.
Nor eulogy nor marble
Can honor such as they,
Who in the cause of duty
And die when they obey.

—Frederick C. Spalding.

PROMISE OF SPRING.
Something tells me spring is coming,
Seem to feel it in the wind;
Just that subtle, conscious sentence
Of sweet mystery everywhere.

Sunbeams in the morn awake me
And a promise of the year to come;
That the day has banished winter
From the meadow, wood and field.

And at times a breath of violets
Steals upon the gentle breeze,
While gray clouds of olden
Trill among the leafless trees.

In my veins the blood is rushing,
Leaping, pounding everywhere;
All outdoors is calling to me,
For the spring is hiding near!

—Laura Cromer Hemmingsway.

HUMOR OF THE DAY
Mrs. Parker—Our new cook has learned all my ways.
Parker—Don't worry. She may improve—Life.

"Define the word 'deficit'."
"A deficit is what you've got when you haven't as much as if you had just nothing."—Puck.

He—People are saying you married me for my money.
She—Well, I had to give them some reason.—Chicago Herald.

Doily—Did she say he was a good spender?
Doily—Well, she said he always paid her attention.—Judge.

Prof. As a success you have been a failure.
Stude—Yes, but as a failure I've been a grand success.—Froth.

"That fellow certainly is a duf." "For why?"
"I told him I'd married my wife and he went and told my wife."—The Lamb.

"Isn't he rather fast, dear?" "Lamb, the anxious mother."
"Yes," he replied, the girl, "but I don't think he will get away."—Boston Transcript.

"I was worrying about you last night, my dear."
"There's no use." "I know, but I always worry over trifles."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Belle—Betty has a wonderful memory.
Beulah—How so?
"She says she remembers the first man who kissed her."—Yonkers Statesman.

Mrs. Jinks—My husband was a confirmed smoker when I married him, but today he never smokes.
Mrs. Blinks—Good! To break off a lifetime habit like that requires a strong will.

Mrs. Jinks—Well, that's what I've got.—Ideas.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE
Numerous economies are claimed for a new automobile that can be run by gasoline or electricity or a combination of the two.

It is reported that the Hawaiians are lately making bricks out of the lava which occasionally sweeps down their mountainides.

One hundred and twenty-four pairs of birds nested and raised their families on the average farm of 195 acres in the Northeastern States.

Bids have been opened in Norway on cast iron or steel pipes for a new municipal waterworks, delivery to be made in the latter part of 1917.

A gift of £10,000 has been made by Capt. Henry Samman for the purpose of encouraging the study of the Russian language by Hull students.

Worms Handicap Your Child.
Worms drain the strength and vitality of children, making them dull and listless. Their power to resist more serious diseases is reduced and energy and interest in play is lacking. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a mild laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like to take. It kills and removes the worms and lets your child grow strong and healthy like other children. Don't let your child be dragged down by worms. Full directions on the box. At all druggists, 25c.

Just Arrived
Another car of Horses right off the farms of Illinois—all are gentle and well broken—prices low as possible for the kind. Come and see them.
